Embassy reports they have separate luggage van set to go separate from the movement of people.

Just have to – we won't be waiting for the luggage to clear. As soon as we have cleared customs, we will be rolling.

And for the departure – we will have a baggage call for luggage and passports, and we should pre check the group in, obtaining boarding passes and luggage claim checks for the party that we can share with the agent doing our arrival in JFK.

And, as we said, we need very similar mechanisms at each of the train arrivals and departures.

We should plan for a luggage van for airport pick-up and departure as well.

I am attaching two budgets. One for the van option and the other for the sedan option. All other costs are included as requested. If you have any questions, please let us know.

Our thought was that security would divide among the secure vehicle package. With that being said, the original suggestion from [Ex. 7(c)] could still work, but a little tight. Also added a second option with two 8 PAX vans. Please let us know which way you would like to go. Names can be moved around, but to show an example please see below:

Option 1 ([Ex. 7(c)] suggestion):
